

Copenhagen Slim Solo (DK)

Nisse Thorbjørn aka Copenhagen Slim is a celebrated award winning bluesinger and musician from Denmark.

The music:

Nisse's music has an original feel while at the same time the Delta and Chicago blues tradition can be felt through the music. His interpretations of Soul, Folk and Blues classics are filtered through his own experience and performed in a very personal style that sounds like no one else but him. Here is a short video from a German tour early 2018: <https://www.facebook.com/nisse.thorbjorn/videos/10157013242754776/>

Bio:

Nisse Thorbjørn gained his alias "Copenhagen Slim" while in Chicago at the start of his professional career in 2003, hanging out and sitting in with acts and at jamsessions at Chicago (US) venues, where he appeared as a guest with Billy Branch, John Primer, Lurrie Bell among others.

In 2009 Nisse Thorbjørns solo record "CPH Slim" was published, this earned him critical acclaim with a 4 hearts rating in the national culture newspaper Politiken, he also recieved the "Danish Blues Musician of the year award" that year.

On the road:

Having toured in Europe as a harmonica player with Chicago greats like Lurrie Bell and John Primer and performing as a solo artist and with Copenhagen Slim Band has earned him a reputation as a bluesman with a big feeling and dedication to his music.

Recently:

2019 saw Copenhagen Slims first Australian tour, playing 19 concerts in 23days including Echuca bluesfest.

2020 saw a second Australian tour

New album named "Lost Highway" is out!